

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am excited to apply for the Web Developer position at your organisation, where I can contribute my skills and passion for web development to your mission of making open source software accessible to people everywhere.

As an enthusiastic and self-motivated developer, I have gained a strong foundation in HTML, CSS, and JavaScript through online courses and personal projects. I am also proficient in WordPress, Vue, and Python, and I have experience building web applications using these technologies.

I am excited to continue developing my skills and learning from experienced professionals in a collaborative environment. I am confident that your organization, which works in a multi-disciplinary team environment, will provide me with the opportunity to do so. I am eager to learn from and work with other designers and developers to create world-renowned software that impacts the lives of millions of people every day.

My positive attitude, adaptability, and strong work ethic make me a valuable asset to any team. I am committed to delivering high-quality work that meets both technical and user-centered requirements. I am also open to feedback and willing to learn and improve to ensure that my work meets the highest standards.

Thank you for considering my application. I am excited about the opportunity to work with your organisation and contribute to your mission of making open source software available to people everywhere.

Sincerely,

Michael Haye
